IMPORTANT

Please note that application does not guarantee accreditation. You will be advised no later than 9 April 2007 if your application has been successful. Photo journalists must abide by our photography policy; proceeding with this application implies that you accept these terms (see http://www.polocrosse.com.au/worldcup/news_media.htm) On successful processing of your application a media pass will be provided prior to the commencement of the World Cup. Complimentary entry of media to Morgan Park will not be allowed without a media pass. Media passes are only transferable to other authorised representatives of the media organisation and proof of identity must be provided on request. Media passes provide access to Morgan Park and the media room but they do not include complimentary hospitality and refreshments unless otherwise agreed.
